Robert A. Bream Wins Doctorate For Thesis On Consumer Education

Following his recent completion of an 850-page thesis presenting a comprehensive consumer education program for use in elementary and secondary schools, Robert A. Bream, assistant superintendent of the public schools of Adams county, will receive the degree of Doctor in Education from Pennsylvania State college, Thursday at commencement exercises marking the close of the current summer session.

Mr. Bream's exhaustive study of consumer education and his completion of a plan for its integration in regular school curricula from the first grade to the senior year in high school was received with commendation by the State college examining board headed by Dr. Charles C. Peters, professor of education in charge of educational research at State College.

Consumer education, already recommended by the Pennsylvania Council of Education and slated for introduction in Adams county schools during the coming year, may have a revolutionary effect on many present school curricula. It is indicated in one statement included in a 2,000-word abstract of the thesis submitted to the examining board.

To Use in County Schools

Mr. Bream wrote: "Consumer education is a natural medium for the gradual reconstruction of the entire school curriculum along functional lines." He added: "The ultimate accomplishment of consumer education may be to teach us how to improve our whole economy."

Mr. Bream said today that a beginning already has been made in some high schools of the county on the introduction of consumer education while teachers in the high schools and elementary grades as well have indicated a marked interest in the consumer education plan.

Objectives of consumer education in the schools, as outlined by Mr. Bream in his thesis, are to provide the pupils with the "economic competencies" needed in "over the counter" buying, managing individual and family finances, proper care and use of goods and services at hand, dealing with problems through group or government action and developing a "worthy philosophy of values as a guide in making intelligent choices."

Courses Planned

The study, begun during Mr. Bream's service in the schools of Teaneck, New Jersey, includes results of teacher, pupil and parent surveys that disclosed "overwhelming support" for the idea of practical training in means of meeting everyday problems in living that are not usually the concern of textbook authors.

More than 400 pages of the thesis are devoted to the presentation of 24 complete units of consumer education training and instruction for pupils in grades 1 to 12, covering a range of subjects that stretches from an acquaintance with simple foods and the care of toys to advertising, housing, conservation and legal protection for the consumer.

The general plan is to integrate consumer instruction with existing courses but elective specialized courses in phases of consumer education would be offered in the upper classes in high school.

Published Other Works

"A consumer education program may be built upon what is now at hand in almost any school" and should be designed to help pupils "with their real life needs," the author wrote. Formation of Consumer Education Councils to plan and evaluate the program in various areas is recommended.

The thesis which has won him his doctorate is not the first work Mr. Bream has written on the subject. The state Department of Public Instruction is publishing a bulletin in which he recently collaborated titled "General Suggestions for Wartime and Post-war Consumer Education." This fall the New Jersey State Department of Education will publish a syllabus on which Mr. Bream acted as consultant. It is titled "A Guide for Teaching Consumer Education in the Secondary Schools." A half dozen other papers on related subjects have been published or have been completed for future publication plans.

THREE RESORTS NEAR HERE HIT WAR-TIME BOOM

High in the Blue Ridge mountains, three summer resorts far from any battlefield or defense area are going through a war boom.

Blue Ridge Summit, Monterey and Buena Vista—renowned vacation spots for the well-to-do and settings for meetings of international prominence—have lost much of their one-time affluence but arrival of troops at a nearby post has brought a new era of popularity.

Socialites among colonists are tending their own gardens and doing without the house servants who were called to military service or took war jobs.

They walk or ride bicycles. Some have resuscitated horse and pony carts while the few cars in service have attractive chauffeurs.

Belles At Work

Summer residents working at war jobs in Washington moved their families here but soldiers predominate. Army officers and their families occupy many summer cottages and in Blue Ridge Summit a housing shortage has developed.

Monterey Country club has closed for the duration, the belles of its once elaborate dances and social functions are serving in one of the women's branches of the service or doing war work.

The backyard "grapevine telephone" has come back into service since priorities prevent connection of telephones except where military officials are housed or service is essential.

Old timers still gather at the railroad station but the two trains daily have gone to a steady flow of freights carrying war materials and several additional passenger trains now bring military personnel and vacationists.

Captain Stare At Camp Croft, S. C.

Captain Herbert S. Stare, graduate of Gettysburg college and public relations officer at Carlisle Barracks, left today for Camp Croft, South Carolina, where he has been assigned as an infantry officer.

Captain Stare received his commission in the reserves in June, 1935, and was called to active duty in August, 1941. He was assistant public relations officer at Carlisle from October, 1941, to February, 1943, when he was named public relations officer to succeed Colonel E. E. Hume, who is now chief health officer in Sicily. He was promoted to first lieutenant in September, 1939, and was named captain in January, 1943.

Born in York, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Stare, Captain Stare graduated from North York high school and Gettysburg college, where he received his A.B. degree. He was publicity director for Gettysburg college in 1935 and the same year was president of the Inter-collegiate Newspaper association, Middle Atlantic states.

29 ACCEPTED FOR ARMY AND NAVY SERVICE

Twenty-nine Gettysburg and western Adams county men were accepted for duty with the United States armed forces from the August call of the Gettysburg Selective Service board Tuesday following physical examinations at Harrisburg.

Fifteen were accepted for Army service, 12 for the Navy and one each for the Coast Guard and Marine Corps.

Many of the men were 18-year-olds who recently entered the draft lists on age, while 14 were married men, four of whom are fathers. Four of the men were volunteers including Hiroaki Kono, Gettysburg college student who is the son of a Japanese father and a Hawaiian mother. An American citizen, he volunteered for duty with the Marines and was accepted.

Army Selectees

Edward Alonza Hinkle, 350 York street, who was named as acting corporal, is another volunteer and a father. He heads the list of Army selectees including Donald Reed Nary, Biglerville, single, and a volunteer aviation cadet, and Harold Jacob Mauss, Gettysburg R. 2, a father and a volunteer.

Others selected for Army duty include: Francis Eugene Fogle, Aspers R. 1; Charles Edward Arendt, Gettysburg R. 3; Ralph Lester Warner, Biglerville; Willis Monroe Conover, Gettysburg R. 1; Eugene Wilson Koonz, Gardners R. 2; Raymond Luther Myers, Fairfield; Ellis Budd Deardorff, 27 Baltimore street; Earl Howard Fleming, Baltimore; Roland Elmer Orner, Gettysburg R. 4; Paul Howard Harbaugh, New Oxford; Robert H. Janke, Lansdale, and Roger P. Greenslade, Carnegie.

Navy Selectees

Robert Leroy Gilbert, 59 South street, has been named leader for the Navy contingent. He was accepted into the Seabees as was William Charles Epley, 55 Hanover street. Others named for the Navy include Charles Earl Stoner, Baltimore; George Francis Fream, 225 Hanover street; Herbert James Spahr, 168 York street; Wayne Myrl Arentz, 157 York street; Paul Robert Knox, 11 Steinwehr avenue; Robert Edward Keefer, 60 East Middle street; Edwin Fidler Stewart, Jr., Gettysburg R. 3; Lorin Brown Partner, Harrisburg; Lester McFarland Dengler, 46 West Middle street, and David Calvin Riley, Fairfield R. 1.

William Henry Small, West High street, was named to the Coast Guard and ordered to report to Curtis Bay, Maryland, in a week. All of the Navy men will report to Harrisburg next Tuesday. The Army inductees have a two weeks' leave before reporting to New Cumberland to begin active service.

One of the men sent Tuesday was retained for further examination today.

May Call Fathers

No statement would be given by the Gettysburg Selective Service board today on the recent decision of national selective service officials to begin the general drafting of fathers starting October 1.

No meeting of the board has been held as yet on the matter, it was pointed out, and official instructions have not as yet been received by the board. Whether the supply of 1-B men and single men already on the board's lists would be sufficient to fill the September and October calls could not be determined at this time, a spokesman for the board said. If the calls in September and October are large, it was pointed out, "in all probability some married men with children will be called."

This Is How Allies Did It

Washington, August 4 (AP)—The Army, casting its usual reticence to the winds, today put out a blow-by-blow description of how the air forces swept the skies clear of Axis craft over Sicily, Sardinia and the Italian boot in July and summed up with these statistics:

In four weeks, U. S. planes flew 12,583 offensive sorties in the Mediterranean theatre. A sortie is a flight by one plane.

Bombers dropped 12,460 tons of explosives. Gunners destroyed 342 enemy planes, probably destroyed 54 more.

Three Axis ships were sunk and 10 damaged.

U. S. aircraft losses totaled 190.

High point was the bombing of Rome by 272 heavies and 249 medium bombers July 19. They cascaded 1,101 tons of bombs on railroad yards.

The Northwest African Air Forces, commanded by Lt. Gen. Carl Spaatz and the U. S. Army Ninth Air Force, under Maj. Lewis H. Brereton, thus "cleared the Sicilian sky of the enemy's planes in July, blasted his air fields to the point of uselessness and pulverized his lines of communications," the War Department summary said.

CROPS SUFFER FROM DROUGHT

Generally overcast skies today held the thermometer to a sultry 81 early this afternoon after a sweltering night in which the mercury never went below 73 degrees.

Scattered showers Tuesday evening and this morning brought little relief from the hot, dry weather of the last two months that has seared cornfields, withered gardens and caused peach growers serious concern for their crop which needs rainfall to reach good size by harvest time which is fast approaching.

Tuesday's official high reading here was 95 degrees while a 98 was recorded at Arendtsville to equal the season's previous high there. Clouds late in the afternoon brought some relief here.

The month of July was nearly two inches short on rainfall and boosted to 4.52 inches the rainfall deficiency for the last two months.

July's hottest day, according to the official records of Dr. Henry Stewart, local observer, was the 21st when a reading of 95 was taken. The lowest reading of the month was 48 degrees on July 1. On ten days last month, readings of 90 degrees or above were taken while 15 days were partly cloudy, only four cloudy and 12 partly cloudy.

On the average each day last month was 1.3 degrees hotter than normal July weather.

"Traffic Jam" In Sky; Roar Is Deafening

By RELMAN MORIN

Allied Headquarters in North Africa, Aug. 4 (AP)—The Mt. Etna line trembled under one of the greatest concentrations of fire in the war today as huge formations of Allied bombers and fighter-bombers joined with British and American warships and hundreds of batteries of field artillery in hammering the Axis' fixed defenses.

The full fury of the tremendous air, sea and land bombardment was unleashed in support of the big push of the land troops which, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters communique announced, marked up an advance of six miles in the Americans' northern sector and a gain of "several miles" in the central zone flanking Mt. Etna.

Naples Is Blasted

The American Seventh Army, strengthened for the final punch by rested veterans of North Africa who took over from some of the weary advanced guard in Sicily, captured Caronia, four miles east of San Stefano and 18 miles west of Cape Orlando on the north coast.

The capture of Catenanuova, 22 miles west of Catania and about three miles southwest of previously captured Centuripe in this sector, was announced. The communique also confirmed the previously reported fall of Agrigento to the northwest.

Naples was hit the second successive night in the reopened air offensive against the mainland, with railways and communications as the particular target.

Warships In Action

American heavy cruisers, disclosed to be in action in Sicilian waters for the first time, along with American destroyers, pumped shells into the coastal road and Axis defenses built into the high ground west of Cape Orlando, about 43 miles west of Messina and just ahead of the American advance.

British destroyers also blazed away at the east Sicilian coast, raking with high explosives the coastal road at Taormina north of Catania, and at Cape Molini, 17 miles south of Taormina and just north of Catania.

Following the banquet Tuesday evening at the Hotel Gettysburg, Doctor Ricks attended a fraternity meeting at the chapter house on Carlisle street. He left Gettysburg this morning to continue his tour of Sigma Chi chapters in the country.

Cut Into Pieces

The area around Agrigento on the western edge of the Catania plain was the scene of the fiercest resistance and it was officially disclosed that the place changed hands "many times" before Canadian troops finally secured the position.

To the southeast, around Catenanuova, the British manhandled the first big German counterattack with tanks in more than a week, knocking out a 60-ton Tiger tank and two smaller ones and cutting the accompanying infantry assault to pieces.

Then the British 78th and 51st Infantry Divisions advanced over ground strewn with enemy dead.

GERMANY WILL GET MIGHTIEST POUNDING FROM AIR BY ALLIES

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

The way things now look in the European laboratory of war, the Allied bombing of Germany and occupied territory may be the agent which will precipitate victory.

This isn't to say that victory depends solely on air-power, for many elements are contributing to the Axis downfall which surely and steadily is approaching. Still, the aerial bombardment is having a terrific and perhaps decisive effect on the Germans.

Despatches to Swiss and Swedish newspapers from their correspondents give a composite picture of a Germany undergoing such terrors that "nobody knows how long the population will be able to endure it." The undreamed of striking-power being shown by the Allied Air Forces has convinced the Reich that a new phase of the war has been opened.

Death From Skies

One Stockholm despatch describes the bombing as having an effect similar to that of the Allied naval blockade in 1918, when the morale of the German people cracked because of hunger and other privations. That's an intensely interesting statement, especially since the Fatherland of the last war collapsed without enduring the horrors of bombardment. The weight of trouble which caused the people to quit in 1918 isn't a speck on the moon to what they shortly will be getting from the cumulative effect of Allied bombing.

The bombardment serves the double purpose of destroying war resources and of so disrupting communications as to put many parts of the country on short rations. Thus it's a much more devastating weapon than naval blockade.

It's only so far back as May 19 that British Premier Churchill announced to a joint session of the Senate and House in Washington that the Allies were about to undertake the historic experiment of trying to bomb Germany and Italy into impotency. That's less than three months ago—a very short time to show big results in such a vast undertaking, which must depend on cumulative destruction.

Effect On Italy

Since then Allied bombers have blazed a trail for a Sicilian invasion which is forging to success. If Marshal Badoglio persists in his suicidal resistance, it's not unlikely that bombing will force the collapse of the Italian mainland even before the Allies invade it.

We have only now arrived at the time when we might expect a yell from the Boche if the experiment was going well. We finally have drawn that yell by a steady destruction of industries, supply centers, submarine and shipping bases, and communications by rail and highway. Resistance by the Nazi air-force has decreased as our devastation has multiplied.

The Allied bombing operations have been aimed at military strangulation but obviously the civilian population has had to suffer. The casualty roll in many cities has been heavy, but it has remained for the wholesale assault on the great port of Hamburg to make Germany realize the awfulness of the steadily growing power which has been unleashed.

30,500 Dead In Hamburg

One Danish consular official is quoted in Copenhagen as estimating that 200,000 people have been killed in Hamburg. It would be well to accept that figure with reserve, but the police of the ruined city are said to place the killed, wounded and missing at 30,500.

The continued assault on Hamburg has given rise to the idea that the Allies are bent on total destruction of the city, and that other metropolitan centers of military importance will follow. The Germans themselves have jumped to the conclusion that Berlin is next on the list, and a partial evacuation is under way.

So the Allied bombing experiment is going places. Both German military resources and civilian morale have been dealt heavy blows. Perhaps one of the severest shocks Hitler has been given is the destruction caused in the Rumanian oil field by American Fortresses. He has been depending on Rumania for perhaps half of his slender supply of oil, and any considerable loss in these resources would represent a major catastrophe.

Reds Nearing City Of Orel

Moscow, August 4 (AP)—The fall of the German stronghold of Orel appeared inevitable today as a smashing Red Army offensive carried to within five miles of the city.

The German retreat westward from points north and south of Orel itself would be abandoned, eliminating the entire enemy salient on the central front.

(The British radio, quoting a Reuters dispatch from Moscow, declared that the Germans' escape corridor west of Orel had been narrowed to 13 miles, threatening the Nazis with another disaster perhaps equal to that suffered at Stalingrad.

Francis counter-attacks into which the desperate Germans threw their full strength of manpower and mechanized forces in an effort to stave off encirclement, have failed to halt the Russian advance, a Soviet communiqué said.

ITALIAN FLEET TO BE SEIZED OR DESTROYED

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

Washington, Aug. 4 (AP)—There is growing opinion in Naval circles here that the Allies can count with reasonable certainty on capturing or destroying the major portion of Italy's hapless fleet, possibly soon.

This would be more than bad news for Tokyo's admirals. The Mediterranean and the Pacific are linked closely in the strategy of this global war.

Final crushing of Italy, if it entails the surrender of the Axis Mediterranean Naval force, will facilitate greatly the organization of amphibious forces for an assault on Burma this fall. Once Allied operations in the Mediterranean are secure from the threat of enemy attack, warships could be shifted to the Burma theater immediately.

Threat to Allies

These ships have been held in the Mediterranean against the possibility that the Italians might reverse their fleet-in-being strategy and send their warships against Allied convoys or landing forces. Battered and disorganized though the Italian Navy is, some of its remaining units might do considerable damage if they fell upon supply ships or transports inadequately protected.

At present the Italians should be able to muster about half a dozen battleships, somewhat less than a dozen cruisers, a maximum of 100 destroyers of which about half are Corvette types, and some 70 submarines, mostly based on Spezia and Taranto when the present Allied offensive against Italy began.

There have been reports from neutral countries that the units at Taranto were moved into the Adriatic. If that is true, the Germans might have a chance of gaining control of them should Italy surrender.

In Allies Favor

On the other hand there is little likelihood that the units based on Spezia would fall under German domination with Allied Naval and airpower in the Tyrrhenian sea as great as it is.

Thus the Allies can count with reasonable certainty on capturing or destroying at least the major portion of Italian naval forces in the near future. Once that potential opposition is out of the way, with little or nothing to fear from the battered French ships which fell into German hands at Toulon, naval opposition in the Mediterranean need be expected only from a relatively few German submarines. Protection of convoy movements against these marauders is the task of Corvettes, destroyer escorts and the like rather than heavier ships. There should be no obstacle, therefore, to the transfer of Britain's main fleet units from the Mediterranean to India.

Attack on Burma

An attack on Burma this fall, when the monsoon season ends, is the Allies' only hope of reopening the Burma road to China in time for organizing a China-based offensive against Japan next year. If heavy bombing of Japan is to be undertaken from China it can be sustained only with supplies moved in through Burma.

Experts familiar with conditions in Burma report that the only feasible means of beginning a major campaign there is an amphibious operation against Rangoon, the main seaport. This would require huge Naval support and complete victory in the Mediterranean would go far toward making that support readily available.

Treasury Collects From Tax Chiselers

Washington, Aug. 4 (AP)—The Treasury reported today it had rounded up an additional $56,444,954 from tax chiselers during the past year and in doing so had taken out of circulation these "chiselers" against the nation's wartime revenue needs.

"A professional card sharp whose 'take' over a period of years approached six figures, a wealthy lottery czar, a racketeering tax adviser, and two purveyors of 'blue sky' mining stock."

Summarizing the annual report of W. H. Woolf, chief of the Internal Revenue Bureau's Intelligence unit, the Treasury said the exposure, prosecution and conviction of these individuals was merely incidental to the business of hunting down tax frauds.

Woolf's agents, the department reported, spotted the additional revenue in the course of nearly 1,000 investigations which led to tax evasion charges against 95 persons, all but three of whom were convicted.

Brooklyn's New Policy Is Not Paying And Bums May Leave First Division

By SID FEDER
The Associated Press
There's no doubt the lieutenant colonel is a busy man these days down there in the War department, but he must take time out every once in a while to have a chuckle or six over what the Dodgers are doing. Or, rather, what they're not doing.

The lieutenant colonel, naturally, is your old pal, Laughing Larry MacPhail, the big wind from Grand Rapids. And it becomes more and more obvious—the hole in the bottom of a bucket of beer—that it was Laughing Larry's system of building which made a pennant winner, or a reasonable facsimile thereof, out of the Bums.

Bums Are Breaking
And now that Laughing Larry's BBP (Brooklyn building program) is out, the Flatbush Folies show distinct signs of coming apart at the seams. You might say, a lot of the stitches already have popped, because the Dodgers are nose-diving along on a losing streak that reached seven games last night when they were cuffed around 7-4 by the Cardinals as Mort Cooper chalked up his 15th win. At this writing, Brooklyn is only four percentage points out of fourth place. The door to the second division is open and the welcome mat is out.

Laughing Larry operated on the system that you have to spend money to put together a winner. And to make the Dodgers a winner, he spent it as though he had the mint in his boudoir. His operations had the customers flocking into Ebbets field like bank night and free dishes all in one, and the Brooklyn club paid off a lot of its IOUs. But in spite of this, MacPhail's free and easy way of getting rid of money in exchange for expensive playing talent didn't sit too well with the stockholders. And last summer, he was practically invited to hand over the keys to the safe.

Loses Four Stars
Branch the reverend Riskey was brought in, and while Branch the reverend knows somewhat more than one-and-one about what makes ball clubs run, his methods of saving a buck here and two bits there just aren't getting Brooklyn anywhere near front and center in the National league. He's already sliced pitchers Bobo Newsom and Johnny Allen, who won 14 and lost five between them this summer, off the payroll, to say nothing of Dolph Camilli and Ducky Medwick. Three of these four, incidentally, were working for quite a bit more than coffee and cakes.

And pitching, especially, is what the Bums need "mostest of the bestest." Last night, for instance, Max Macon lasted just long enough to stake the Cards to a five-run first inning. That stretched St. Louis' National league lead to 11 full games over the Pittsburgh Pirates, who dropped a 6-1 decision to Boston, because Nate Andrews was very warm for August and served up a five-hitter.

Browns Drop Two
Over in the American league, the Washington Senators, still doing it with mirrors, belted the sagging St.

Unassisted Triple Play

Daytona Beach, Fla., Aug. 4 (AP)—An Army baseball player pulled one of the sport's rarest plays—an unassisted triple play—during a service game here last night.
John Flemming, of Philadelphia, first baseman for a medical corps unit, grabbed a shoestring liner with two men on base, touched first, then raced to second for the third out before an astonished runner could get back to safety.
Flemming's team lost, 5-2, however, to an Army supply detachment.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
New York, Aug. 4 (AP)—Willie Gilzenberg, Tony Galento's manager, and matchmaker Babe Culnan are due to intrude on the privacy of Boxing Commissioner John Hall today to ask his okay for a fight between T. G. and Freddie Fudicia for the New Jersey heavyweight championship in the Newark ball park the week of Sept. 6. . . . If they put that one over, they should head for the governor's office to ask for a pardon. . . . A Brooklyn play-pen tennis court is doing so well this summer that the owner plans to hire a few more pros and start advertising on the radio next year.

Coal Production In Sharp Decline
Philadelphia, Aug. 4 (AP)—Pennsylvania's anthracite output was 123,000 tons in May, the Federal Reserve bank of Philadelphia reported Monday in its monthly business review.
Production was the smallest for any month since the outbreak of war and bituminous production decreased one-third to an average of less than 3,000,000 tons a day, the review said.
Production was the smallest for serve district was one-fifth greater in the first six months of the year than during the corresponding period last year and production in heavy industries showed a 36 per cent gain with only building materials showing a steady decline, according to the review.

Penn Is Seeking October 16 Game
Philadelphia, Aug. 4 (AP)—The University of Pennsylvania, with a new football schedule that brings Yale here October 2, is looking for an October 16 opponent.
Penn athletics director H. Jamison Swarts, announcing that the Princeton game originally scheduled for the latter date would open the Quakers' Franklin field season instead, said he hoped to fill the open date within a week or 10 days.
Swarts said Princeton requested

All-American Open Playoff Rivals

Harold (Jug) McSpaden (left), Philadelphia pro, and Buck White (right) of Greenwood, Miss., wear broad smiles after their 72-hole scores of 282 in the $10,000 All-American golf open tournament at Chicago's Tam O'Shanter course placed them in a tie for first honors. An 18-hole playoff of the tie was ordered.

Nats Catcher Attributes Improvement To Yankees

Washington (AP)—They're calling Jake Early, Washington's strapping young catcher, "the new Bill Dickey," which is equivalent to saying he is the best receiver in baseball and is making the Nats what they are today. Jake doesn't feel that way about it.
"That's foolish. I'll never be a Dickey," he says, but beams his pleasure over the comparison just the same. Then he laments: "Dickey could hit."

But even Jake's becoming modesty can't hide the progress this 190-pound, 28-year-old native of the Carolinas has made since he joined the Nats five years ago.
Works Harder
"Why, I don't know why I'm a better catcher than last year, if I am," he says. "I'm working harder—missed only five or six games this season—and that may have something to do with it."

"The pitchers have more confidence in me, and I guess I've learned a little more about the opposing hitters. You know, if you call for a fast ball and the guy knocks it out of the lot, you remember the next time he comes up not to give him that same pitch."

Helped By Dickey
"Well, a few tips that Dickey and Benny Bengough gave me have helped. I'll admit. Benny asked me one day what was wrong with me. I did it know what he meant. And he said: 'You don't have to reach out and meet the ball, it'll come to you.'"

"So I've quit boxing the ball. And Dickey saw me mess up some pop

BIG GREEN HAS GRID TROUBLES

By DEAR MORSE
Hanover, N. H., Aug. 4 (AP)—The word has gone around that Earl Brown, Tuss McLaughry's replacement as football mentor at Dartmouth, is in the same happy situation as a man going out to catch fish in a barrel.

Apparently just about everybody believes that to be so except the man to whom it means the most and that man—of course—is Earl Brown.

"What are the prospects for that powerhouse you are going to have this fall," Brown was asked.
Prospects Not Bright
"Not very bright," the new Big Green tutor shot back and he went on to explain:
"You have heard and read that we are loaded. We are supposed to have inherited a wealth of brawn and brain from several colleges whose boys are up here in the Navy V-12 program but I can tell you that a lot of those axes supposedly here are not on the scene."

In the week of training just concluded about 40 men reported. Brown said that right now he is counting mainly on regular Dartmouth students who won their spurs with the team a year ago.

Holy Cross, Coast Guard academy, Pennsylvania, Yale, Columbia, Cornell and Princeton are scheduled from September 26 to November 20.

MURTAUGH TO WAR; PHILS TO GET BILL LEE

Philadelphia, Aug. 4 (AP)—When Second Baseman Danny Murtaugh dons an Army uniform August 24, the Phillies will lose their last point of resemblance to the team they were on opening day.

Every player except the speedy Murtaugh, who passed his pre-induction physical examination yesterday, has been shifted—or traded, sold or drafted—under the whirlwind ownership of William D. Cox. man and a 280 hitter, will be replaced at the end of his three-week furlough by "Gabby" Stewart, utility man who according to clubhouse legend hasn't said anything but "excuse me" since the season opened.

Get Bill Lee
A new face in the Phillies' lineup will be that of big Bill Lee, bespectacled right-handed pitcher whose purchase from the Chicago Cubs, for an undisclosed price, was announced yesterday. The Cubs at the same time claimed the Philadelphia catcher Thompson (Mickey) Livingston for the $7,500 waiver price.

Lee, who has been with the Cubs since he came up from Columbus in the American association in 1934, has 136 victories to his credit against 114 losses, including a record of 22 and nine during the Cubs' pennant year of 1938.

This season, however, the 33-year-old veteran has won only three while losing seven.

More Freedom For Farmers Next Year

Washington, Aug. 4 (AP)—President Edward A. O'Neal of the American Farm Bureau Federation expressed belief today that farmers would have more freedom next year in determining their individual crop and livestock production programs.
"The trend in agriculture," he said, "is definitely away from central government control and toward more local, individual control."

O'Neal made this statement after conferring with War Food Administrator Marvin Jones on plans for the 1944 food program which, Jones has announced, will call for record plantings of 380,000,000 acres to food and feed crops and the maintenance of livestock production at near the present peak.

Pirate Star Again Ordered Off Bench

Pittsburgh, Aug. 4 (AP)—Pirate fans are hoping that before the next game in which he is called upon to pitch, Rip Sewell will have recovered from his habit of getting ordered off the field.

Monday he failed to leave the dugout immediately when Umpire Lou Jorda ordered him to do so. It cost the hurler, who wasn't even in the game, a $50 fine from National League President Ford Frick.

Yesterday Rip was again ordered from the Buc bench, even before the game started, evidently for complaining too loudly about paying the $50. There were signs that he is recovering: This time he left promptly enough to avoid incurring another fine.

Gene Sarazen and Frank Walsh (cuppers) vs. Harry Cooper and Hagen.

Hagen, captain of the challengers, will be making his first appearance as a player in the series, having served as non-playing captain of both the cup team and the challenging squad.

Wood's cup team last year whipped Hagen's challenge squad 10-5, but Hagen gets his chance to square accounts in the war relief series in 18-hole foursome play Saturday and 36-hole hand to hand singles Sunday.

BULLET GRID CARD DROPPED

The formal football schedule at Gettysburg college this fall has been abandoned, C. E. Billheimer, athletic director, announced today.

A six-game schedule had been completed, two additional games having been cancelled when opponents abandoned their entire football program.

"I don't see how it will be possible to carry out our football program this fall," Mr. Billheimer said. "With a limited number of men available for football it would be practically impossible to place a formidable team on the field. However, should conditions in the fall change and we are able to muster up a team we may be able to play one or two games."

Members of the 55th College Training Detachment at the college are not permitted, under Army rules, to engage in varsity football competition.

Most Gettysburg football opponents have abandoned football this year.

Pittsburgh, Aug. 4 (AP)—Carnegie Tech and the University of Rochester have tentatively arranged a football date for November 6 at Rochester. Athletic Director Clarence Overend of Tech announced today

Just Folks

A "SCORCHER" RETURNS

Time was—fully fifty years ago—
As proud as any lad could be,
That thrill of thrills was mine to know—
My father bought a bike for me.
Soon every riding trick I knew,
Which brought the plaudits from the stands.

What others did I learned to do,
Including "riding without hands."
I never saw a daring feat
But what I claimed it for my own.
A leap, and I was on the seat.
Soon as a "scorcher" I was known.

Then many a neighbor shook his head
As I went racing down the road.
"That boy will break his neck!" they said.
"He pays no heed to safety's code."

Today a bicycle I ride
To save the gas, but skill has flown
And vanished is the old-time pride.
The daring boy has cautious grown.

The lad of many a reckless feat
Has slipped forever out of sight.
An older man on that safety's seat
Is hanging on with all his might.

'Tis strange how ugly knees appear
When time has stripped away their grace;
How much there is for age to fear
Which youth with laughter used to face.

The boy who "scorched" in Ninety-three
Now slowly rides his bike, and he
Is hanging on with all his might.

MAKE NO SMALL PLANS

One reason why there are not more stalwarts in the world is that too many people have no other ambition than to fool around with small plans. But Edison didn't. Ford didn't. Woolworth didn't—and any number, whose names are household names, because they chose to make big plans—and risk the result.

Small plans do not stimulate the imagination. Big thinking and planning ride over the small obstacles in the way as though they were but mere pebbles. Men like Kaiser, for example, see things—impossible things—as though they were already completed. But he does this by starting out on big plans and running them through.

Kaiser, as a young man, was a photographer—but he could see nothing big in this work—only something to stimulate his imagination. He then became a day laborer, but he was not that for long. He kept thinking. He saw improved ways of doing his job. He then started out for himself. He then began building bridges, dams, and later, ships to win this war. The bigger the job the more anxious he was to get going on it!

To conceive, plan and complete big things does not mean that the little things should be neglected. Big planners always have an eye to the smaller details but only as they enhance and make perfect the larger things.

Men of vision ride the world. They are forever seeing beyond their noses and scenting events far in the future. They measure life not in lengths of time but in things accomplished. They reach beyond shadows into the substance of worlds that they make their own and then pass on for others to develop where they left off.

No small plans are going to bring about universal peace with justice arranged for all the nations of the earth. Men with far-seeing minds and with unselfish purposes must do this titanic job. The map of the world has been made smaller than ever in the history of the world. It

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Captain Bodley Is Appointed: Captain James W. Bodley assumed charge of the Soldiers' National cemetery on Wednesday as its new superintendent. He comes from Winchester, Virginia, where he was head of the national cemetery.

Chaplain Gets Commission: Rev. P. P. McGee, Roman Catholic chaplain at the Mont Alto sanitarium, has received a lieutenant's commission as a chaplain in the United States Army.

He will go into chaplain's training school at Camp Zachary Taylor, Kentucky.

Morrison—Galbraith: At the bungalow of Rev. J. B. Baker along Marsh creek, Monday afternoon, Miss Alva E. Galbraith, of Gettysburg, and Lt. Norman M. Morrison, of Camp Colt, were married by Rev. Mr. Baker.

For the past four years the bride has been employed at the Funkhouser store. Lieutenant Morrison is from Troy, Alabama. He is with Company A, 331st Battalion, Light Tanks.

Norman Tate Is Hurt In Battle: Norman Tate, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Tate, of West High street, is the first Adams county selected man to be wounded in France. The father received this telegram Saturday night from Adjutant General McCain.

"Deeply regret to inform you that it is officially reported that Private Norman Tate, Infantry, was severely wounded in action July 16th."

Norman Tate went from Gettysburg with the first large contingent of draftees on September 20th last.

Assembly Now In Full Swing: Representatives of six states are attending the Lutheran Summer Assembly now in session in the Seminary buildings. The attendance is very large and all accommodations at the institution have been taken with the result that a number are seeking rooms in town. There are people present from Ohio, Virginia, Maryland, New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

Japan Stands With America: Washington, August 3—Joint action between Japan, the Entente Powers and America in Siberia is assured. Japan has found acceptable the American proposal which primarily looks to the aid of the Czechoslovaks, now operating in Siberia, and after exchanges between Tokio and Washington, which have cleared up all doubtful points, a complete agreement has been reached. The plan of operation will be put into execution at once.

Many Horses Entered: The following have entered their horses for the driving matinee at Huntertown on Saturday: S. S. Herish, Roy E. Zinn, Robert S. Bream, Luther Slentz, Fred McCammon, Edgar C. Tawney, Spangler and Oyler, all of Gettysburg; S. G. Weaver, Charles Decker, C. R. Smith, H. G. Deatrick, G. A. Rafespenger, George Millhimes, Jesse Millhimes and Edward Millhimes, all of Huntertown, and H. S. Thomas, of York.

Go Sugarless During August: That the sugar situation has become so serious it is necessary to cut off the August supply of sugar to all commercial users is the information given out at the office of the Adams County Food Administration.

This means for those consumers who use sugar for the manufacturing and for conducting public eating houses will be unable to purchase sugar during the coming month. Those consumers without a sufficient quantity on hand will have to get along without sugar during August.

Launch Big Ship in Fourteen Days: Philadelphia, July 29—According to information received by the Emergency Fleet corporation, the Ecorse plant in Michican on Saturday launched a 3,500-ton cargo-carrier that had been only 14 days in the building. Reception Center Captures 29th Win

Harrisburg, Aug. 4 (AP)—The Army's Reception Center baseball team from nearby New Cumberland chalked up its 29th victory last night, defeating an all-star team from the Indiantown Gap Military Post 8-2.

Fred Caligiuri, formerly of the Philadelphia Athletics, turned back the All-Stars with six scattered hits for his sixth victory against no defeats. Pat Mullin, one-time Detroit big leaguer, and Duck Detweiler, a former Boston Brave, belted home runs for the Reception Center.

With the induction of fathers scheduled to start in October, the indications are that most of them probably will find themselves in the Navy, since by that time the Army will be close to its goal of 8,200,000 men. The Navy offers no such system as the Army has for advancing men from ranks to commissions.

Requirements for Army officers have been to a large extent filled, except for replacements. The general "leveling off" process in the Army is further indicated by the disclosure that the basic training period, heretofore 13 weeks, is now being lengthened to 17 weeks.

Flashes of Life

WRONG GUESS
New York (AP)—Magistrate Charles Solomon told Same Levine he would suspend sentence on a charge of enticing patrons to a "guess-your-age" establishment at Coney Island, if Levine could guess his age within two years.

Levine eyed the magistrate in his best professional manner then barked, "forty-eight."

"Wrong," retorted the judge, "two dollars please."

JUST A REHEARSAL
Pittsburgh (AP)—Firemen climbed up through smoke and flames to a fourth-story window in a blazing apartment house, rescued Cookie, a 2-year-old brindle bulldog, and brought him safely to the ground. They had scarcely turned around when they heard a barking and looked up. There was Cookie at the fourth-story window, ready to be rescued again.

AH, YES!
Rock Port, Mo. (AP)—The director of the town band is Miss Silence.

SAFETY ZONE
Clinton, Mo. (AP)—A plover has her nest in the middle of a road linking the farms of Mrs. C. W. Jones and Howard Jones.

The Joneses have warned every one, and all motorists carefully detour around the nest—which now contains an egg.

AAH-CHOO-O
Aurora, Ill. (AP)—The city commission, as a measure of relief for hay fever victims, planned to cut pollen-producing weeds around the city, and issued an announcement to that effect. Property owners were to be billed for the cost.

Now the city has announced the property owners will have to do their own weed-cutting. Reason: Manpower shortage.

MUNDA BATTLE CLIMAX NEAR; YANKS ADVANCE

By C. YATES McDANIEL
Allied Headquarters in the Southwest Pacific, Aug. 4 (AP)—The battle of Munda neared its climax Tuesday with United States forces breaking down final Japanese defensive positions after a general advance of 500 to 1,200 yards carried them almost to the edge of the strategic New Georgia airfield.

Supplementing General Douglas MacArthur's Tuesday communique which announced the advance, a naval spokesman for Admiral William F. Halsey's command in the South Pacific said American troops reached a point "close to the eastern edge of the field."

A portion of Biblo Hill, enemy strongpoint defending the northeast approach to Munda, was captured in the American onrush, the spokesman said. He disclosed that tanks, flame throwers and artillery supported Marine and Army units in their advance.

Many Japanese were killed in the attack. Although there was no indication of retreat, Japanese resistance was not as strong as heretofore.

Other Action
Simultaneously, Allied forces in New Guinea brought the Japanese stronghold at Salamaua under artillery bombardment for the first time.

These new successes were recounted today in a communique which also told of a one-sided aerial victory over the Japanese, of the firing of an enemy destroyer, and of a heavy bombing of the Buin-Faisi harbor and the Kahili airfield, the enemy's major operating base in the Solomons.

Medium artillery, probably 105mm Howitzers, which has been wrestled into position since the Allies landed at Nassau Bay, south of Salamaua, June 30, blazed away at the Salamaua airfield, destroying ground-planes, demolishing a 60-foot section of the adjacent Francisco river bridge, and dropping shells directly on anti-aircraft batteries.

By CHARLES S. FOLTZ
Madrid, Aug. 4 (AP)—Premier Pietro Badoglio's regime has slowly but firmly imposed upon Italy a military dictatorship of the toughest type and the prospects of an Italian surrender now are extremely dim, according to Italians who left Rome only last Sunday.

While the Italian people in general are anxious for peace, these new arrivals in Spain declared, the peace movement lacks capable leadership and Badoglio shows every sign of doing his best to keep it so.

Peace demonstrations which followed the fall of Benito Mussolini's Fascist government enabled Badoglio and his military followers to ascertain the possible leaders, they said, and many of these were jailed.

Orders to Shoot
The travellers painted this picture of the situation in Italy at the time of their departure:

Officers of the Italian Army as a whole are pleased by the change-over from Mussolini to Badoglio and Italy has gained in efficiency as a war machine despite the loss in morale which may have been occasioned by several days of disorders in many places—notably Milan and the Bari area.

The Italian people have learned that Badoglio, unlike the Fascists, won't take them to jail, beat them up or question them. Instead his troops are under strict orders to shoot at the first sign of demonstrations or trouble and ask questions later.

Part of the present calm in Italy under the blanket of military dictatorship is due to the failure of the Allies to clean up Sicily last week. Badoglio's press and German propaganda agents are making the most of continued resistance in Sicily to whip up Italian fighting spirit.

Four Are Rescued From Pitt Blaze
Pittsburgh, Aug. 4 (AP)—Four persons were rescued by firemen and others as flames did $7,000 worth of damage yesterday at the Saybrook apartments.

Firemen carried Mrs. Mathilda Hoffman, 24, and her mother, Mrs. Freda Perlow, 45, down a ladder, after the women had been trapped on the fourth floor.

Richard Pomerantz, 9, and his brother, Freddie, 4, were carried to safety from the third floor by Meyer Levin, a druggist.

TRYOUT CAMP
Pittsburgh, Aug. 4 (AP)—Seeking material for their farm clubs, the Pittsburgh Pirates will hold a three-day tryout camp tomorrow to Saturday at Cumberland, Maryland, in charge of Lee Mackey and Joe Brehany of the Buc scouting staff.

COUNTY GROUPS TO DISPOSE OF NEW SPUD CROP

Harrisburg, Aug. 4 (AP)—Marketing and storage problems of Pennsylvania potato growers today came before the new state potato marketing committee, organized by the U. S. Department of Agriculture to direct orderly disposal of the 1943 crop.

The committee is headed by James E. Walker, who also is chairman of the state War Board of the department, and is composed of representatives of the federal Food Distribution Administration, the Agricultural Extension Service, the state Agriculture Department and C. F. H. Westoff, of Williamsport, secretary of the state Potato Growers association.

Potato acreage in Pennsylvania was increased 23 per cent this year but Walker said, "the 1943 potato crop will still be below the supply necessary to meet total civilian and military demand through the months until next June when early potatoes once again become available."

None In Adams
The state group now is directing formation of 34 county potato marketing committees by Aug. 9, each local group to include a member of the county War Board, a potato grower, a person acquainted with market problems, the county farm agent and the local FDA supervisor.

Local committees are being organized in the counties of Berks, Bradford, Bucks, Butler, Cambria, Carbon, Centre, Chester, Clearfield, Columbia, Crawford, Cumberland, Dauphin, Erie, Indiana, Jefferson, Lackawanna, Lancaster, Lebanon, Lehigh, Luzerne, Lycoming, Mercer, Monroe, Northampton, Northumberland, Potter, Schuylkill, Somerset, Tioga, Union, Venango, York and Warren.

The federal state Crop Reporting Service, meanwhile, reported that egg production in Pennsylvania during June broke all previous records for the month. The 1943 production crease of 22,000,000 over June of last year, of 22,000,000 over June of last year.

You May Never Have To Take Another Laxative
Most constipated people might be as regular as clock-work—if they would only quit worrying—stop being nervous—take more exercise—watch their diet—and get up mornings an hour or so earlier to give bowels time to act. But who can or wants to do all this?

So—the next best thing is to keep the bowels working as regularly and comfortably as we can—and that's where good old Espatols come in. Why?

Because you may take Espatols at night and expect results in the morning, when you get up without waiting around—because they do not move the bowels so violently as to leave you feeling weak and washed-out.

AND because they help give the grand, comfortable, satisfying type of movement that makes the spirits soar—and what sour, constipated person could ask for more? Get Espatols at your druggist today and take as directed. 24¢.

Doughton Returns Due To Sales Tax

Washington, Aug. 4 (AP)—Chairman Doughton (D-N. C.) of the tax-framing House Ways and Means committee cut short his vacation and returned to the capital Tuesday amid renewed discussions for and against a sales tax as a source of extra money for the war effort.

Doughton came back from North Carolina earlier than he had expected to, anxious to check on the Treasury's ideas for new and higher taxes to meet President Roosevelt's demands for $12,000,000,000 more than now is collected.

Coinciding with his arrival, some Congressional tax sources said they thought there was too much sentiment against a sales tax for such a bill to become law.

240 MILE BIKE RIDE
State College, Pa., Aug. 4 (AP)—The wanderlust had such a grip on Dick Allis, 13, of Syracuse, New York, that he packed a duffle bag with spare clothes, loaded a pup tent on his bicycle and set out for his grandmother's in Boalsburg, near here. The 240-mile trip took a week and cost $7.80. Dick pitched his tent each night along the road.

SALES TAX IS ANTICIPATED TO BOOST REVENUE

By FRANCIS M. LE MAY

Washington, Aug. 4 (AP)—The preliminary search for new billions of war-financing revenue appeared narrowing today to two major possibilities—increases in individual and corporate income taxes, or a federal retail sales tax.

Capitol Hill heard informal reports that treasury and congressional tax experts in joint conferences were leaning heavily toward income tax increases, possibly with an excess profits levy against individuals with swollen wartime incomes, and were putting little if any emphasis on a retail sales levy.

At the same time there were increasing signs that a bloc might form within Congress favoring a sales tax up to 10 per cent to avoid further drastic direct deductions from income.

Chairman Doughton (D-NC) of the House Ways and Means committee declared he would battle for protection of millions of persons in the "fixed-income" class—these whose earnings have been jacked up but little if at all by the booming wartime economy.

Doughton conferred with Treasury Secretary Morgenthau and issued a statement saying that recognition must be given "that in any income group there may be people who need to be protected against the full impact of tax increases."

The ways and means committee, before Congress recessed for the summer, instructed its staff to work with the Treasury on alternate means of raising more revenue, with specific instructions "to study and report on the feasibility of raising additional revenue by means of an individual excess-profits tax" hitting those with war-swollen incomes.

Representative Reed (R-NY), ways and means member, said "serious consideration" should be given to possible use of a sales tax, in the overall study of new sources of revenue.

Emmitsburg

Emmitsburg—Arthur D. Phebus, chief clerk of the War Price and Rationing Board, Frederick, was in Emmitsburg Monday to complete arrangements whereby certificates for rationing sugar will be issued at the town office. It will not be necessary for the individual to communicate with the rationing office in Frederick.

Mrs. Anna Hoke Hull and Guy Nunemaker have been appointed agents with power to issue sugar certificates, and the town office will be open from 7 to 9 p. m. on Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday evenings of each week for that purpose.

"Present a letter to the War Price and Rationing Board at the town office setting forth the number of quarts of fruit you wish to can or jar. You will be allowed 25 pounds per person including the 10 pounds already allowed on Ration Book No. 1. Do not delay making application for sugar just as soon as you know your requirements," Mr. Nunemaker announced.

Lieut. Luther Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin of Fountaineau, Pa., was recently transferred from New Orleans, La., to Duke university at Durham, N. C., where he will undergo an intensive training in advanced accounting for a period of six months.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS
Fatalities Lower

Injuries on our fighting fronts are heavier than during the first World War but fatalities are much lower owing to the increased care and aid our medical units are affording the wounded.

Operating tables in base hospitals cost $400 each, and our War Bonds will have to buy thousands of them to provide our wounded with every chance to recover.

FIND NO CLUE IN KIDNAPPING OF 2-DAY-OLD TOT

Albany, Ore., Aug. 4 (AP)—Police admitted today they had no lead to follow in the kidnapping of two-day-old Judith Gurney, daughter of an AFL labor union official.

Officers said she was the youngest tot ever abducted.

The baby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Gurney, Albany, was born Sunday, and less than 48 hours later disappeared from her crib in the second-story nursery of the Albany hospital.

Police Chief Perry Stellmacher said the kidnaper evidently entered the building in the early morning hours yesterday, waited until the nurses were out of the room, grabbed the child, placed a rolled blanket in the crib to resemble the infant and fled.

No ransom note has been received. Stellmacher said the only clues were a torn wistaria vine alongside the fire escape and footprints in a flower bed below.

Dr. E. Lew Hurd, who attended Mrs. Gurney, feared for the health of the child. On his appeal radio stations broadcast instructions, intended for the kidnaper, on how to care for the baby.

Police throughout the state were put on the alert and all doctors were asked to report anyone seeking care for a newborn child.

Mrs. Gurney, grief-stricken and in critical condition, was allowed no visitors.

The father, a plywood mill foreman and an AFL union official of moderate means, said he had no enemies and could offer no clues. Police ruled out the possibility that ransom was the motive.

Synchronizing Of Signals Sought

Harrisburg, Aug. 4 (AP)—Synchronizing of air raid warning signals in Pennsylvania communities is recommended by the state Defense Council to avoid confusion in future blackouts and test drills.

A council bulletin said "whatever your problem may be, it would be wise at this time to conduct an immediate survey to establish the length of time necessary for each signal operator to sound the alarm after being contacted by phone. Those who require more time should be called first." The council said confusion over signals was the major complaint in the July 28 blackout.

COMMITTEE TO PORTION COAL

Washington, Aug. 4 (AP)—A national anthracite industry committee has been named by solid fuels Administrator Harold L. Ickes to assure equitable distribution of the available supply of hard coal where it is needed most.

Ickes said the supply of anthracite was so close to estimated requirements that such a step was necessary. The committee, composed of representatives of producers, wholesalers and retailers, will make recommendations and advise Ickes on a general distribution policy.

Anthracite is now being distributed under a temporary program, inaugurated in late June, which is designed to give each community the same proportion of the hard coal output before September 1 as it received last year.

The Solid Fuels Administration announced that after September 1 it was expected that a permanent

Army Colonel Says War Will Be Long

Charlottesville, Pa., Aug. 4 (AP)—Col. Charles A. Hoss of the Army Quartermaster Corps said today that "the end, or the beginning of the end" of the war "is nowhere in sight."

"We must grid ourselves for a long war," he said in an address prepared for delivery at presentation of the Army-Navy "E" award to the Charlottesville plant of the Corning Glass Works.

Col. Hoss said the "feats of American troops in about 70 countries are made possible and the hour of victory hastened by the determined efforts of the workers at home . . . who place love of country and the welfare of their service men above all personal considerations."

program, taking into account changed demands due to wartime population shifts, additional coal required for conversions from oil and other factors, will be put into effect.

STATE MAY USE ONE AUTO TAG TO SAVE METAL

Harrisburg, Aug. 4 (AP)—Legislative leaders gathered in the capitol today to pass on a proposal that Governor Martin be permitted to suspend the law requiring two automobile license tags on each vehicle so that metal could be saved next year by using only one plate.

The group included House Speaker Ira T. Fiss; Charles H. Ealy, president pro tempore of the Senate; Franklin H. Lichtenwalter, Republican floor leader in the House; Weldon B. Heyburn, Republican leader in the Senate; Reuben E. Cohen, Democratic House leader; and B. B. McGinnis, Democratic leader in the Senate.

Use of one tag was approved by the Governor yesterday at the request of Atty. Gen. Francis Biddle but sanction of the legislative officers is required by the 1943 war powers act. That law gives the Chief Executive the right to suspend laws impeding the war program if the U. S. government asks the action and the leaders of the general assembly agree. The license plate proposal is the first use of the act.

Two small tags were attached to 1942 tags this year but Martin said they were "not very satisfactory" and "we have had to replace 100,000 already." He said 600,000 tons of metal could be saved by using one plate.

The Governor also indicated he would refuse a federal request to take over the Pennsylvania Industrial School at Huntingdon for use as a military prison, declaring a survey disclosed "we won't have sufficient room to take care of our prisoners." He said "because of this increase in crime, we are afraid we couldn't do it."

Game Commission Buys 7,500 Traps

Harrisburg, Aug. 4 (AP)—Purchase of 7,500 traps for use in transferring game animals from urban areas to hunting lands was authorized by the Game Commission yesterday.

The commission reported game protectors, sportsmen, Boy Scouts and others trapped over 33,000 game animals last year and freed them on land where hunting is permitted and said the figure should be doubled this fall and winter.

Chicago, August 4 (AP)—The United States cut its traffic death toll during the first six months of 1943 to almost half of its pre-war figure, the National Safety Council reported Monday. The half-year drop was 41 per cent from the same period in 1941 and 32 per cent from that in 1942. This year's traffic deaths through June totaled 10,030, compared with 17,028 in the first half of 1941 and 14,690 in the first half of 1942.

The liver should pour out about 2 pints of bile into your bowels every day. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food may not digest. It may just decay in the bowels. Then gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. You feel sour, sick and the world looks pink.

It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these 2 pints of bile flowing freely to make you feel "up and up." Get a package today. Take as directed. Effective in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. 10¢ and 25¢.
